

OKOLONA MESSENGER.

Democratic in Principle, But Independent in Thought and Action. Devoted to Honesty, Truth and Good Government.

VOL. 41

OKOLONA, MISSISSIPPI, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1913

NO. 46

NGILL SETTLEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Reders who have been making their home with Mr. Reders' parents here since their marriage in August, have gone to Long-keeping. They moved into one of Cab McGill's houses Saturday, Mr. Reders having rented land from Mr. McGill for a crop next year.

Miss May Cole, of Houston, a talented young school teacher, opened the winter term of school at the Hylly school house Monday. Miss Cole will make her home with the family of Mr. Stephen F. McGill during the school term.

Ed Reders who has been working for Higgs & Co. at Sumner since Sept. 1st returned home last week.

Miss Margerite Atkinson went over to the Prairie Mount community last week and spent several days with her sister, Mrs. John Anderson.

Mrs. Allie Dallas and one of her little daughters who were in the sick bed for several days last week are reported able to be up and around again.

James McGill, Jr. son of W. G. McGill, who, accompanied by Carl Hadley went to the Tennessee Valley near Town Creek, Ala. the first of September, has returned to the parental roof. Jimmie back home Sunday and received a warm welcome from his father, sister and little brother. "Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam, be it ever so humble there is no place like home."

Quite a number of our people went to Okolona Monday, the object of interest being Hagenbeck & Wallace show.

Notwithstanding the very unfavorable fall most of our people are about as well as usual. This has been one of the most unfavorable falls for gathering crops in many years in this community. With an abundance of rain and cold weather the people have had a hard time in saving what they made. Quite a lot of cotton and other products were ruined last on account of so much bad weather.

ATTENTION, PATRONS OF THE LYCEUM COURSE

The Lyceum committee finds that by a different arrangement of chairs it is possible to add two more to each row and at the same time seat the audience to better advantage. This will give us a good many more reserved seats and none will be farther back from the stage than they were at our opening number.

These seats together with those reserved for the first attraction, only, will be on sale four days before the appearance of the next attraction. The board will be found at that time at Bearden & King's drug store.

A new board has been made showing the reserve of those holding season tickets and the seats yet for sale. If any mistake has been made about your ticket or your seat, please take your ticket to Rev. E. T. Mobberly, who has the board and a record of every season ticket, and he will gladly make the necessary correction.

Those who bought tickets for the first attraction only may change to a season ticket by seeing Rev. E. T. Mobberly and paying the difference between the price of a season ticket and what has been paid already. Those who want tickets for the remainder of the season can get a double ticket for $3.50; a single ticket for $2.00. There will be four more attractions for which the general admission will be 50 cents and 25 cents; reserve seats, 75 cents and 35 cents.

The committee wishes to thank the patrons of the course for the liberal support given the first attraction. The other attractions are good and will no doubt be enjoyed by all who attend. Continue to give us your support and the course will be a success.

Cordially yours,
J. S. PRICE,
Chairman Lyceum Committee.

Easy Task.
There are two things which I am confident I can do very well; one is an introduction to any literary work, stating what it is to contain, and how it should be executed in the most perfect manner.—Samuel Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Dallas are the proud parents of a fine baby boy who recently made his advent into their home to cheer and gladden their lives. Mr. Dallas is all smiles and says it won't be long until his little son will be accompanying him on his trips to town and other places to which he may go.

We have about as many cheerful and happy old people in this community as you will find in the average neighborhood. One of them we have not mentioned in our items for some time is Mrs. Rebecca Carroll. She makes her home with her son-in-law, Mr. L. T. Eiland. On account of a fall she had two years ago she has to go on crutches; otherwise she is hale and hearty as you will find one of her neighbors. Mrs. Carroll has been a member of a Baptist church for over 40 years. She is well posted on the scriptures and is always ready and glad to talk on the beauty of living a christian life. Her husband was a soldier in the Mexican war of '47. The U. S. Government which takes care of its proteges is looking after Mrs. Carroll in her old age by granting her a pension for the services of her husband in the Mexican disturbance of long ago. Mrs. Carroll is nearing her 76th year of the journey through life. She seems to be happy and contented with her lot, and bids fair to live many years yet notwithstanding the fact that she has to go on crutches as a means of locomotion.

REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

October Term 1913

We the Grand Jury of this Honorable Court beg leave to submit to your Honor this our final report.

We have been in session four days and have worked diligently to ferret out violations of the law from all sources and against all parties. We have issued summonses for 90 witnesses to come before our body, 73 of said number have appeared before us and been examined. We have returned into Court 18 true bills of indictment.

We have examined by committee, the Jail for the Second District of the county, located at Okolona, a building to be kept in good condition, we have, by committee, examined as well as we could in the brief time allowed us, the books of the Justice of the Peace for this district and the other county officers books and, so far as we were able to ascertain, they were properly kept.

We have given thoroughly into the condition of the public schools in the second district of Chickasaw county, and without exception, we have found them in poor condition and not worked up to the standard required by the Road Specifications on file. We believe that the money of the people is so handled that they are not given just returns for the taxes paid.

Now, having done our work as fully as we believe we can, and having finished our investigations on all lines we believe it our duty to make, we thank your Honor for the able and helpful charge given us covering our duties, and the District Attorney for his helpful advice.

We ask that this report be approved by your Honor and that we be finally discharged.

This 30th day of October, 1913.

DEATH ANGEL CLAIMS SAM I. SOLOMON

Sam I. Solomon, who was stricken Saturday afternoon while attending to his duties at Winner, Klein & Co., and who was taken to a local hospital unconscious, died at an early hour Sunday morning. Mr. Solomon never regained consciousness.

The death of Mr. Solomon came as a distinct shock to the whole city, where he was generally esteemed and loved by all that knew him. He had a wide acquaintance throughout the state, being one of the most prominent figures in Masonic circles.

Mr. Solomon at the time of his death was grand secretary of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons; member of the board of managers of the Masonic home; custodian of the Masonic home; past grand lecturer of Mississippi. He was also a thirty-second degree Mason, and an active worker in Scottish Rite circles.

Mr. Solomon has been in ill health for several years. Saturday afternoon he fell unconscious and was hurried to a hospital where the expired despite every effort of the physicians.—Meridian Star, Nov. 8.

The Best For of

Of all the Cures for Kidney Trouble

Doan's Kidney Pills were used — They brought relief.

The story was told to Olan's readers.

Doan has strengthened the evidence.

Has proven the result lasting.

The testimony is from this locality.

The proof convincing.

V. E. Garner, 415 W. High St., Aberdeen, Miss., says: "When a child I was injured and after that on back was very weak. Of late years the trouble became worse. I often got up in the morning so lame and so weak that I could scarcely get around and there was a constant dull ache in the small of my back. Headaches and dizzy spells were also common. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills spoken of highly, I began using them. They rid me of the complaint and I have had no return attack. I am pleased to confirm what I ever said in praise of this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—no other like.

ADVERTISING IS READ—THE PROOF

That advertising in The Star is read—and read by men—is best proven by the fact that one of the Meridian stores, well known to men, advertised that it would give several prizes to the first men who walked into their store after 9 o'clock and said, "This is the store that made the two dollar hat famous!" The advertisement was unsigned, the store testing out advertising to see whether or not they had firmly impressed in the minds of the men of Meridian that there was a two dollar hat store.

The name has become firmly established in the minds of the Meridian men because enough men called at the store after the appointed time to clean the store out of hats—there could not have supplied the demand so great was it.—Meridian Star.
